

Speaker Profile: David Napper

David Napper is the Managing Director of Euroteknik Ltd. The company specializes in electrochemical devices and processes and a number of the patents that David holds relates to those systems.

David has participated in numerous national food sector projects with focus on hygiene design and the processes that support good hygiene

David is part of the European Technology Platform, Food For Life where he participates in the Communication, Technology Transfer and Training group and the SME task force. David is on the executive committee of European Federation of Food Science and Technology and active in the process water group of European Hygiene Engineering and Design Group.

David is currently in a team working to improve the impact of the food sector on the environment and improve the economy of SMEs in the industry by accomplishing better utilization of their byproducts.

Contact Details:

David Napper; Managing Director
Euroteknik, Ltd.
Vibevej 2, Aabenraa, Denmark
Tel: +45 74681953
E-mail: dn@eseparator.com