

Speaker Profile: Harmen Hofstra

Harmen Hofstra is the Secretary General of the European Association for Food Safety, better known by many as The SAFE consortium. He has the overall responsibility for the execution of the consortium activities coordinated from the SAFE consortium office in Brussels.

Harmen has worked for over 25 years in general microbiology, food microbiology and in the management of TNO Food and Nutrition Research. He joined the European Association for Food Safety (The SAFE consortium) in 2002 as the director of the Brussels office.

Harmen has been responsible for several international projects both within TNO and in the SAFE consortium. On behalf of the SAFE consortium he has been active both in the ERA Net of food safety (SAFEFOODERA) and in the European Technology Platform Food for Life, coordinating food safety related activities.
