

Dr Suzanne Bertrand – Director, International Linkages

Suzanne has been Director, International Linkages since April 2008. She is coming from a varied background of both academic and commercial scientific venture, Suzanne came to MoRST from Livestock Improvement Corporation, in Hamilton, where she was Manager, Innovation Group. She arrived in New Zealand from the USA where she was managing a R&D company specialising in gene expression analysis.

Suzanne holds a PhD from Laval University, Canada, and worked for Agriculture Canada as associate scientist before beginning a career in science management, working in China, North Africa, Canada and the USA, before settling in New Zealand.